

A Good Writer _____

The Words of Mrs. Boehm's Fourth Grade

The Thoughtful:

- A good writer is a good reader.
- A good writer does great speaking.
- A good writer always has great ideas.
- A good writer needs good experiences.
- A good writer thinks hard and is always focused.
- A good writer makes rhymes like Dr. Suess.
- A good writer has a good imagination.
- A good writer writes the true news.
- A good writer thinks a a lot and has good thinking and good ideas.
- A good writer is a person who puts commas, question marks, periods, and punctuation marks.
- A good writer never ends a story.

The Funny:

- A good writer makes good stories that has a silver coin on it. (She must be talking about the Caldecott and Newbery)
- A good writer makes good lines for the actresses in the movies.
- A good writer always gets attention when he writes a book.
- A good writer drinks chocolate milk before writing.
- A good writer likes bananas.
- A good writer needs a pencil.
- A good writer is smart and could write 12 pages.